CATERING ABILITIES - HILARY BORGET

I can confirm as CEO of the International Research Centre for Health, Aging and Longevity that I have retained Hilary Borget's services to conduct catering on behalf of visiting international guest scientists and local Australian scientists.

The purchasing of natural and healthy produce, presentation and creativity of the meals was nothing short of brilliant.

The international and national guests have referred to Hilary's expertise in follow up emails with full admiration.

Her capabilities range from sourcing produce, recipes and food creation, discussion with guests and the practicalities of clean up all of the highest order, in summary I would recommend Hilary's services to anyone and am only too happy to discuss her talents further by telephone.

Kind regards

John D. Weller
